

2022 ACES Risk Managers Forum

October 13-14, 2022

Overview

The annual ACES Risk Managers Forum (Forum) provides education and information in the form of subject matter expert presentations and panel discussions, break-out sessions, and Member spotlights. The purpose of the Forum is to give individuals with risk oversight and risk management responsibilities the opportunity to network and obtain information and tools they need to enhance the risk management posture of their organizations.

The 2022 Forum focuses on the competing priorities and extreme risks currently facing electric utilities. After attending the Forum, participants will be able to:

- Understand how other electric utilities are managing large loads entering their service territories
- Gain knowledge regarding new technologies
- Gain knowledge regarding the enterprise risk management programs of other utilities
- Understand how other electric utilities are evolving their portfolios and maintaining reliability
- Understand the impact of proposed SEC legislation
- Gain knowledge on Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) reporting
- Gain knowledge regarding the current economy
- Understand the changes occurring across the structured markets
